

FALLabration & #GivingTuesday

In true Chica Project spirit, we hosted our first IG Live fundraiser led by our youth and a powerful community advocate, Melania Luisa Marte, who graced us with her poetry, wisdom and resiliency.

What's unique about FALLabration this year is that, although it kicked off last night, we will continue this campaign until December 1st, 2020 which is #GivingTuesday. Our goal is to raise $25,000 to fund our Peer Leader program so that we may continue to serve our youth throughout the state of Massachusetts.

So, if you missed last night, you're just in time to help us welcome FALLabration by clicking below:

¡Muchísimas gracias!

Thank you to Bee Crafty, a local Black woman-owned business, who created our stunning limited edition t-shirts!

Another big shoutout to all our viewers last night, as well as our village of mentors, and sponsors for their continuous support!

Is there another way to support?

Yes, by planning ahead! Please consider making your first, second, or third #GivingTuesday donation to us and encourage a friend to do the same. Now, more than ever, is the time to invest. Reaching our $25,000 goal by #GivingTuesday on December 1st, 2020 will help inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy. We can't do it without you!
